

SkateIDSA Points System

Rev 7.23.20

The IDSA Point System is used to keep track of member's performance at IDSA sanctioned events that take place in a calendar year. The Point System will keep IDSA members ranking for the race season.

- Approved IDSA Sanctioned/Recognized events will be eligible for the IDSA Point System.
- Race directors may use custom categories and divisions at their event but SkateIDSA results will be categorized by the following divisions for the tour:
- Open Division- All competitors regardless of discipline, age or gender. If no other categories are provided by the race director the Open division will be the default for race results.
- Women's Division- Competitors racing who identify as female.
- Clydesdale Division- Competitors that weigh 90.7+ kg (200lb) or more.
- Disciplines:
 - Push - Participants pushing skateboards with either foot only.
 - Paddle- Using a paddle as propulsion only no feet used.
 - Paddle+- Paddle and Push, rider may use a combination of foot pushes and paddle pushes for propulsion, racer must carry their paddle at all times.
 - Pump- Pumping will always be assumed as legal in Distance skateboard racing events. You may acknowledge it in sign up as "PUSH/PUMP" or "Paddle/PUMP" but race directors must let it be known if "PUMP" is not allowed in any of your disciplines.

Quad Skate/Inline Skate- Event organizers may also include other forms of roller sports in their events outside of skateboarding but results will be excluded in “Open Division” if the race director does not recognize and record the participant as “Quad/Inline” in race results.

- Age categories - All Division and Disciplines may also be broken down into age categories 13 and under, 14-18, 19-29, 30-39, 40-49, 50-59, 60+
- Skate IDSA Point System is setup to allot points based on participants ‘finishing placement as follows
 - 1st– 150 points,
 - 2nd– 125 points,
 - 3rd– 100 points,
 - 4th– 90 points
 - 5th– 89 points, 6th– 88, 7th– 87, 8th– 86, etc...

Skate IDSA Sanctioned events will also be issued bonus points for competition and degree of difficulty the course presents. Bonus points for Distance, Total ascent gained and Participants will be added up and then multiplied to each Racers finishing placement points.
